Daring To Hope

'Daring to Hope' is a photographic exhibition that exemplifies the work of the Irish Religious Sisters in Ireland and internationally over the past century. The sisters worked to build schools and hospitals, developed social services, in response to social change and urgent need. Through photographs and videos, the exhibition attempts to represent the poverty, war, and injustice the sisters faced. This Photographic Display will take place in the Community Centre from 13th -15th July.

Opening of Display on Saturday 13th July at 11 am - 5pm; Sunday after 9 am Mass until 5pm. A warm welcome awaits those who will take time to visit.

Cúil Gaels Update

With summer holidays finally started for everyone, all groups are out on the pitch. Check out the local clubs, or online, for upcoming Cúil Camps. After a very successful league tournament u14 Cúil Gaels ladies found themselves in the u14B league final against Doonbeg. Cúil Gaels started well having the wind in the first half. They played with great fight and determination and as a result by half time Cúil Gaels were up 3-5 to 2-2.

The second half was a tough struggle working against the wind. All the girls played with great heart and team spirit, with particular mention to Emma Malone Smyth who made an abundance of saves as goalkeeper. Unfortunately, it wasn't to be their day and Doonbeg went on to win with a final score line of 5-5 to 4-5. Scores came from Sarah Haugh (1-1), Kayla Kennedy (2-2), Cora Grogan (1-0), Lily O Leary (0-1) and Rachel Clarke (0-1). The Minors have also begun their competition and played Clarecastle last week. It was a brilliant game to watch with great skill and intensity. Unfortunately, they lost 5-8 to 3-8 but it was a great first match. They are out again v Corofin July 16th.

Our adult team, while not earning a semifinal place, had a good league with plenty of new talent coming through. They are involved in a 3 weekend 7 aside tournament at the moment which is a great opportunity to sharpen skills and get fit before championship starts at the end of the month.

Keep an eye on our socials for regular updates.

Pallottine Fathers

Fr. Martin Mareja & Brother Steve, members from the Pallottine Missions would like to say a very sincere thanks for your very kind welcome last weekend & also for the very generous support for their work and ministry.
