It is incumbent upon us to acknowledge the contribution, to our club, of Jimmy King, who has made the decision to step down from the committee. Jimmy has been involved for many decades - from his time as a player to taking on the position of President and indeed many roles in-between. We have been astounded by his knowledge of our players and the opposition teams. We have been entertained by his amazing talents as Master of Ceremonies and we have been heartened by his ability to find the positives in everyone and in every unfolding situation. His level headedness and integrity have been ever-present and have meant that it has always been a pleasure to work alongside him. We extend our thanks and best wishes to Jimmy, Maureen and Cormac for a healthy and happy future and look forward to their continued friendship.
